OTHER

2. Discussion regarding a field trip of the Waterboro Parks and Recreation Department, on the teen adventure trip. The trip was to climb Pleasant Mountain. Moe Auger is the person running this program, was the only adult with this trip. A ninth or tenth grader was there to help Moe, but they are not adults. She offered to help as a volunteer on any of these trips. She feels there was not adequate supervision on this trip. The boy with her son fell and got hurt. She asked Moe what he had for first aid? The scape was still opened. Their next trip is to a beach, if Moe is the only chaperone, and the only other chaperones are kids. She would like her money back and her son be taken out of the program, if something does not change before next Thursday. She asks how much insurance coverage does the town have if a child gets hurt on a trip like this. Willis Lord asks her how many chaperones she would suggest to have on these trips. She states one adult for every 4 or 5 kids.
