Brenda opened meeting at 8:45 p.m.

APPOINTMENTS

8:45 p.m. - Gail Hennessey stated that the residents of Deering Ridge Road had some letters which they wished to present to the board expressing their concerns regarding a proposed gravel pit in their neighborhood. Brenda accepted the letters and explained that they will be forwarded to the Planning Board. Explained that they are not in a position to overrule any decision of the Planning Board and elaborated on the procedure that they will be following.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Discussed the request from Frontiervision to have a representative from the town go with them for rideout to determine where to install new hookups. Patti authorized to assign this duty to someone. Dick Bateman also requested to participate.
2. Discussed proper bid procedure.
3. Skipped over ad hoc committee for the ponds and will add to next weeks agenda.
4. Patti gave a brief report on what has been crushed based on purchase orders. Will place on next weeks agenda and continue the discussion.
5. Discussed the wood taken down during the Bennett Hill Road project. Brenda read the motion from Town Meeting regarding surplus materials. Motion by Brenda to send a letter to the Road Commissioner reminding him that the motion is valid and the Selectmen have a right to know about any materials. To attach a copy of the Town Meeting vote. Seconded by Willis. Vote 3-0-0.
6. Discussed the letter received from Lisa Faith. Patti reported that she had acquired testimony from Planning Board members who were present and they stated that it was Mrs. Faith who instigated the incident. Comments by Mrs. Faith were not related to the subject of the meeting but were personal attacks against Mr. Foglio. It was agreed that no action will be taken against any Planning Board members at this time. Patti to respond to Mrs. Faith accordingly.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Discussed parking lot snowplow contract. Felt that shoveling should be removed from the contract. Millard suggests that all bidders be required to attend a site walk. Selectmen to review, comment and will bring back at next meeting.
